

Katherine Barclay

Lawyer

T (03) 6235 5121
E kbarclay@pageseager.com.au

Areas of expertise

Workers compensation | Marine | Compulsory third party

Overview

Katherine works with national insurers to assist them with claims in the areas of workers compensation, public liability and compulsory third party insurance. Katherine graduated from the University of Tasmania with a Bachelor of Laws in 2016 and in 2017 undertook a brief period of work experience in London.

Katherine is client focused and draws from her growing experience to assist clients in progressing claims as quickly and efficiently as possible.

Katherine is a member of the Australian Insurance Law Association (AILA) and is on the committee for Young Insurance Professionals (YIPS) Australia and New Zealand.

Experience

Examples of recent experience include:

- providing advice in relation to workers compensation claims management;
- assisting in the process of debt recovery in civil actions; and
- assisting in the process of disputing claims in the Workers Rehabilitation and Compensation Tribunal on behalf of insurers.